John LeBold's 'Silver Screen Collection'

Exhibit at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod

John LeBold will be available to give guided tours and discuss his career in the fashion industry from 1-3 pm on September 7th, 8th, 10th, 12th, and 13th.

From August 31 through September 23, John LeBold's Silver Screen Collection will be on exhibit at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod. The Silver Screen Collection features fifty famous costumes such as those worn by Judy Garland in The Wizard of Oz, Marilyn Monroe in Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, Vivian Leigh in Gone with the Wind (the famous "Drapery Dress"), and Arnold Schwarzenegger in Terminator 2. The jewelry that Elizabeth Taylor wore in Cleopatra and the tablets that Charlton Heston, as Moses, carried down from Mount Sinai in The Ten Commandments will also be on display, along with a wide variety of other props and print memorabilia.

The Silver Screen Collection is of special interest to designers today, both students and professionals, who see in the costumes a legacy that can teach them a great deal. The Cultural Center will extend its hours for the duration of the Silver Screen Exhibit and will be open seven days per week from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. until the exhibit ends on September 23rd.
